INSTRUCTIONS
Requests for admission are written requests by a party to an action requiring that any othe under oath, the truth of certain facts or the genuineness of certain documents. For information on timing, the number of admissions a party may request from any other party, service of requests and responses, restrictions on admission and responses to requests, and other details, see Code of Civil Procedure sections	ons 94–95, 1013, and 2033.010–2033.420 and the case law relating to those sections.
An answering party should consider carefully whether to admit or deny the truth of facts or the genuineness of documents. With limited exceptions, an answering party will not be allowed to change an answer to a request for admission. There may be penalties if an answering party fails to admit the truth of any fact or the genuineness of any document who party later proves that the fact is true or that the document is genuine. These penalties may	y include, among other things, payment of the requesting party's attorney's fees incurred in making that proof.
Unless there is an agreement or a court order providing otherwise, the answering party mu admission within 30 days after they are served, or within 5 days after service in an unlawfu penalties if an answering party fails to provide a timely written response to each request fo among other things, an order that the facts in issue are deemed true or that the documents	in issue are deemed genuine for purposes of the case.	l
Answers to Requests for Admission must be given under oath. The answering party should	use the following language at the end of the responses:
I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the f	oregoing answers are true and correct.
